

The 11th Palliative Care Congress
Glasgow 2016

Speaker Biography

Dr Bill Noble

Bill Noble trained and practised as a GP in Sheffield for 16 years. He specialised in palliative medicine in 1996 and was appointed senior lecturer at the University of Sheffield. His interests include advanced communications training, community palliative care service evaluation and medical humanities.

He was President of the Association for Palliative Medicine of Great Britain and Ireland from 2007 to 2010 and is Editor-in-Chief of BMJ Supportive & Palliative Care. Bill is Honorary Professor of Community Palliative Care at Sheffield Hallam University.

He was appointed Executive Medical Director of Marie Curie in July 2013 where he is responsible for clinical governance, research strategy and service design.