

The 11th Palliative Care Congress
Glasgow 2016

Speaker Biography

Elaine Stevens

Elaine Stevens is a Registered Nurse. She is currently a programme leader at The University of The West of Scotland which delivers wide portfolio of modules associated with cancer, palliative care and research methods. Before this Elaine held a joint number of senior nursing posts in hospices, including managing palliative day services. She remains lead for education and research for The Association of Palliative Day Services. Elaine is also the current chair of The International Association of Nurses in Palliative Care. Elaine has a MSc. in Palliative Care, a Post Graduate Certificate in Education as well as a Post Graduate Certificate in Research Supervision. She is currently a Doctoral student at UWS investigating the impact of specialist palliative day services on attendee quality of life and psychological wellbeing.

