

The 11th Palliative Care Congress
Glasgow 2016

Speaker Biography

Dr Nigel Warburton

Nigel Warburton is a freelance philosopher, podcaster and writer.

His books include A Little History of Philosophy (Yale University Press), Free Speech: A Very Short Introduction (Oxford University Press), Philosophy: the Basics, Philosophy: the Classics, Thinking from A to Z, and the Art Question (all published by Taylor and Francis).

He's also written a biography of the architect Ernö Goldfinger and edited a book about the photographer Bill Brandt.

With David Edmonds he makes the podcast Philosophy Bites (www.philosophybites.com) which has had over 27 million downloads, and also Social Science Bites (www.socialsciencebites.com), which includes interviews with several Nobel prize-winners.

He has co-edited four books based on these series: Philosophy Bites, Philosophy Bites Back, Philosophy Bites Again (all published by OUP), and Big Ideas in Social Science (SAGE).

On Twitter he is @philosophybites where he has over 50,000 followers.